Fraud Cases: There were three reported cases where residents had money taken by scammers. In two cases the victims fell for some online type of scam. The exact nature of these scams is not known at this time. In the third case an unknown suspect opened a bank account in the victim's name.

Attempted Scam: A resident received a call from an unknown individual with a foreign accent. The caller told the resident that he was from "Norton" security and that the resident's account was going to be charged $299.00. The victim was told to open her computer to give him access and the matter could be cleared. The resident fortunately remembered seeing our Neighborhood Watch Warnings about such a scam. She told the caller she did not have a computer and he immediately hung up.

The Lincoln Police stopped two individuals in the 2600 block of Winding Way on Wednesday 03/02/22 at 8:00 PM. The officers subsequently did a record check and found that the male subject had a warrant for his arrest and the female had a misdemeanor warrant. The male subject was taken to Placer County Jail and the female was cited and released on her promise to appear in court.

 This type of good proactive Police work keeps us all a little bit safer!! It is great to see that there are officers patrolling our community.
